Board Policies

The board focuses on three types of policies:

Opportunity policies provide thoughtful parameters on how opportunity will be pursued. For example, a policy may require 100% funding prior to starting a new initiative.

Safeguard policies are written to keep the organization from misunderstanding and harm. Conflicts of Interest and Dispute Resolution are two common examples.

Relationship policies describe the connection between the board, Executive Director, staff, volunteers, and constituency. Succession plans are a good example of how people will be cared for in crisis or planned transitions.

Be Intentional about Improving and Protecting Culture

Work together to improve and protect

Owned by the entire board

Monitored and assessed by a specific committee

Led by Board Chair and Executive Director

Utilize Practices that Drive a Healthy Culture

A chair who is an effective facilitator

Strong relationships among board members, with Executive Director and senior leadership

Board cultures that take the long view

Chair Facilitates Healthy Culture

- › Cultivates a strong partnership with Executive Director
- › Resolves conflicts
- › Builds consensus and reaches compromise
- › Fosters an environment that builds trust
- › Frames questions and discusses issues strategically

Build Strong Relationships

- › Manage expectations on the front end
- › Ensure board feels appreciated
- › Leverage gifts and skills of board members
- › Value all perspectives and opinions, while speaking with one voice

Take the Long View

- › Spend 70%-80% on future vs. 20%-30% on current issues
- › Use longer time horizons when making decisions
 - 3 years or more
- › Strategic vs. tactical focus—creates robust discussions
 - Makes most of diverse perspectives
- › Challenges leadership to consider different future scenarios

Reassess and Emphasize Culture

Include questions in annual or bi-annual board evaluations

Emphasize the importance of culture during times of transition

When it's broken, be intentional about fixing it.

Quick Review—for a Healthy Culture

Recognize the importance of culture

Assess current culture

Be intentional about improving and protecting it

Utilize healthy board culture practices—3 Drivers

Reassess your culture regularly

Breakout Discussion/Work with Coach

- 1 > Discuss the healthy and unhealthy aspects of your board culture based on the board assessment.
- 2 > Discuss unwritten rules as well as clear and hidden assumptions within your board's culture.
- 3 > Does your board have specific values it aspires to? If so, what are they?
- 4 > How do you describe board culture to a prospective board member?
- 5 > What might you want the board culture to look like in two years?
- 6 > What steps could you take to make shifts in board culture?
- 7 > Should we add board culture to your Top 5 Action Steps for your board?

What Do We Mean by “Sustainable”?

› Lasting, built for the long-haul

› Flexes but does not break, absorbs ups and downs

› Balances inputs and outputs

Why is Sustainability Important?

➤ Numerous constituents require it.

➤ You can focus on doing work rather than reorganizing.

➤ Top Leadership and the Board are on the same page.

Framework for Board Success: A Structure

Everything Starts with “Why”

- > Why did you come into existence?
What need did you see?
- > What gets you up in the morning?
- > What keeps you up at night?
- > Understanding your “why” leads to a promise

What is Your Promise?

Breakout Discussion Questions

- > Why was your organization founded?
- > What need did it set out to meet?
- > What is your promise?

Link to questions

Your “Promise” is the Core, Touching All Elements of the Framework

First Core Element: Mission

- > Defines what we do
- > The board is responsible to steward (hold in trust) the mission
- > Missions must live and breathe—they need to stay relevant

Second Core Element: Target Audiences

- > You have multiple audiences—your primary audience is the beneficiary of your services
- > What does each audience want/need?
- > The board needs to ensure a strategy exists for each audience

Third Core Element: Programs

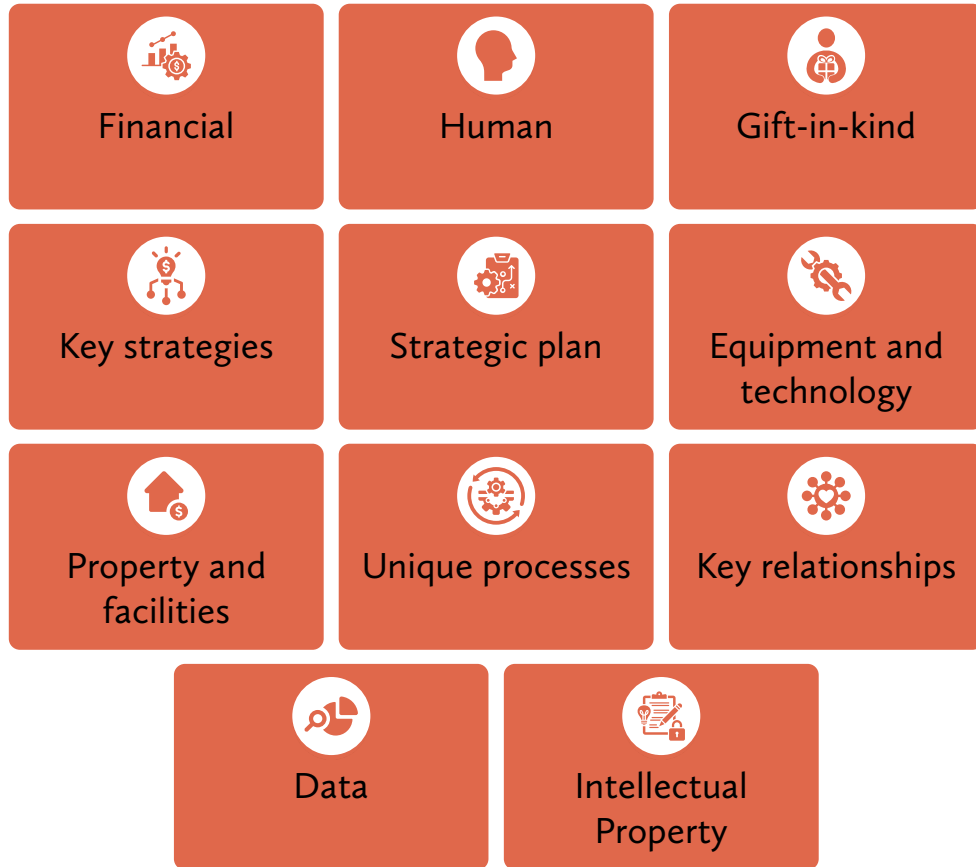

- > This is where your mission comes to life
- > Do we deliver this service/program better than everyone else?
- > Are our programs relevant/productive? Do they produce desired results?

Fourth Core Element: Resources

Fourth Core Element: Resources

- > Avoid overreliance on financials
- > Have a plan and review process for each resource

Fifth Core Element: Future Direction

- > “Future” is the key word (70/30)
- > Proactive versus reactive
- > Disruption will drive this if nothing else
- > How will you deliver your mission three years from now?

A Complete Framework for an Organization

- > Your promise is at the center of everything
- > Balances inputs/outputs
- > Top leaders need to understand your framework

Adding the POWER

- > The power is the interconnectivity of the elements
- > Embrace this and avoid silo thinking
- > Promote efficient behavior

Three Most Important Concepts with the Organizational Framework

1

➤ Leadership must have a working understanding of the entire framework

2

➤ Interconnectivity is key to driving efficiency and optimizing resources

3

➤ Have a plan and review process for each element

Strategic Planning 101:

The Board's Role in Strategic Planning

Strategic Planning

Why have a plan?

Strategic Planning

Strategic planning is a continual process that is used to set priorities, focus resources, and establish agreement on intended results. It shapes what an organization does with a focus on the future.

Note: Strategy is different from strategic planning. Strategy describes HOW goals will be met using available resources.

Board's Role in Strategic Planning

Board's Role in Strategic Planning

Where you land on the previous chart helps describe your role in the strategic planning process.

Why Plans Fail, Falter, Succeed, Never Get Started

- › Fail: No loyalty, no updates, no accountability
- › Falter: Loss of focus due to tyranny of the urgent, board neglect, rigidity
- › Falter: Strategy is confused with operations
- › Falter: Poor framing of strategic issues
- › Succeed: Loyalty, accountability, agility, enculturation
- › Never get started/finished: Desire for the perfect plan, low priority, the illusion of time commitment

“I have always found that plans are useless, but planning is indispensable.”

.....
Dwight D. Eisenhower

Outcomes of a Good Strategic Planning Process

Works well for most boards and executive directors

Functions well in simple/complex situations

Collaborative

Drives strategic thinking into the culture

Focused and communicates well

Elements of the Work

 Strategy Formation
Strategic thinking

 Plan Development
Rolling three-year strategic plan

Strategic Planning 101:

Strategy Formation

Why Is Strategy Important?

An organization's power arises from bringing its resources to bear on a point.

Deciding why, where, and how to operate is different than operating.

Strategy overtly decides the best answers to “why, where, and how.”

What Strategy Looks Like

Guides resources allocation and shapes organizational practices

Chooses a point of focus

Aligns organization around that point of focus

Great strategy uses today's resources to achieve greater success tomorrow through the organization's position, programs, practices, and resources

What Strategy Is

Strategy advisor Roger Martin says it well...

- › "Strategy is the act of making an integrated set of choices which positions the organization to win."

Choices that fit together to achieve a defined vision

Strategy reveals the path to success

What Strategy Is Not

Strategy is not planning, but they are dependent upon one another.

- › "Planning is the act of laying out projects (steps) with timelines, deliverables, budgets and responsibilities..." - Roger Martin

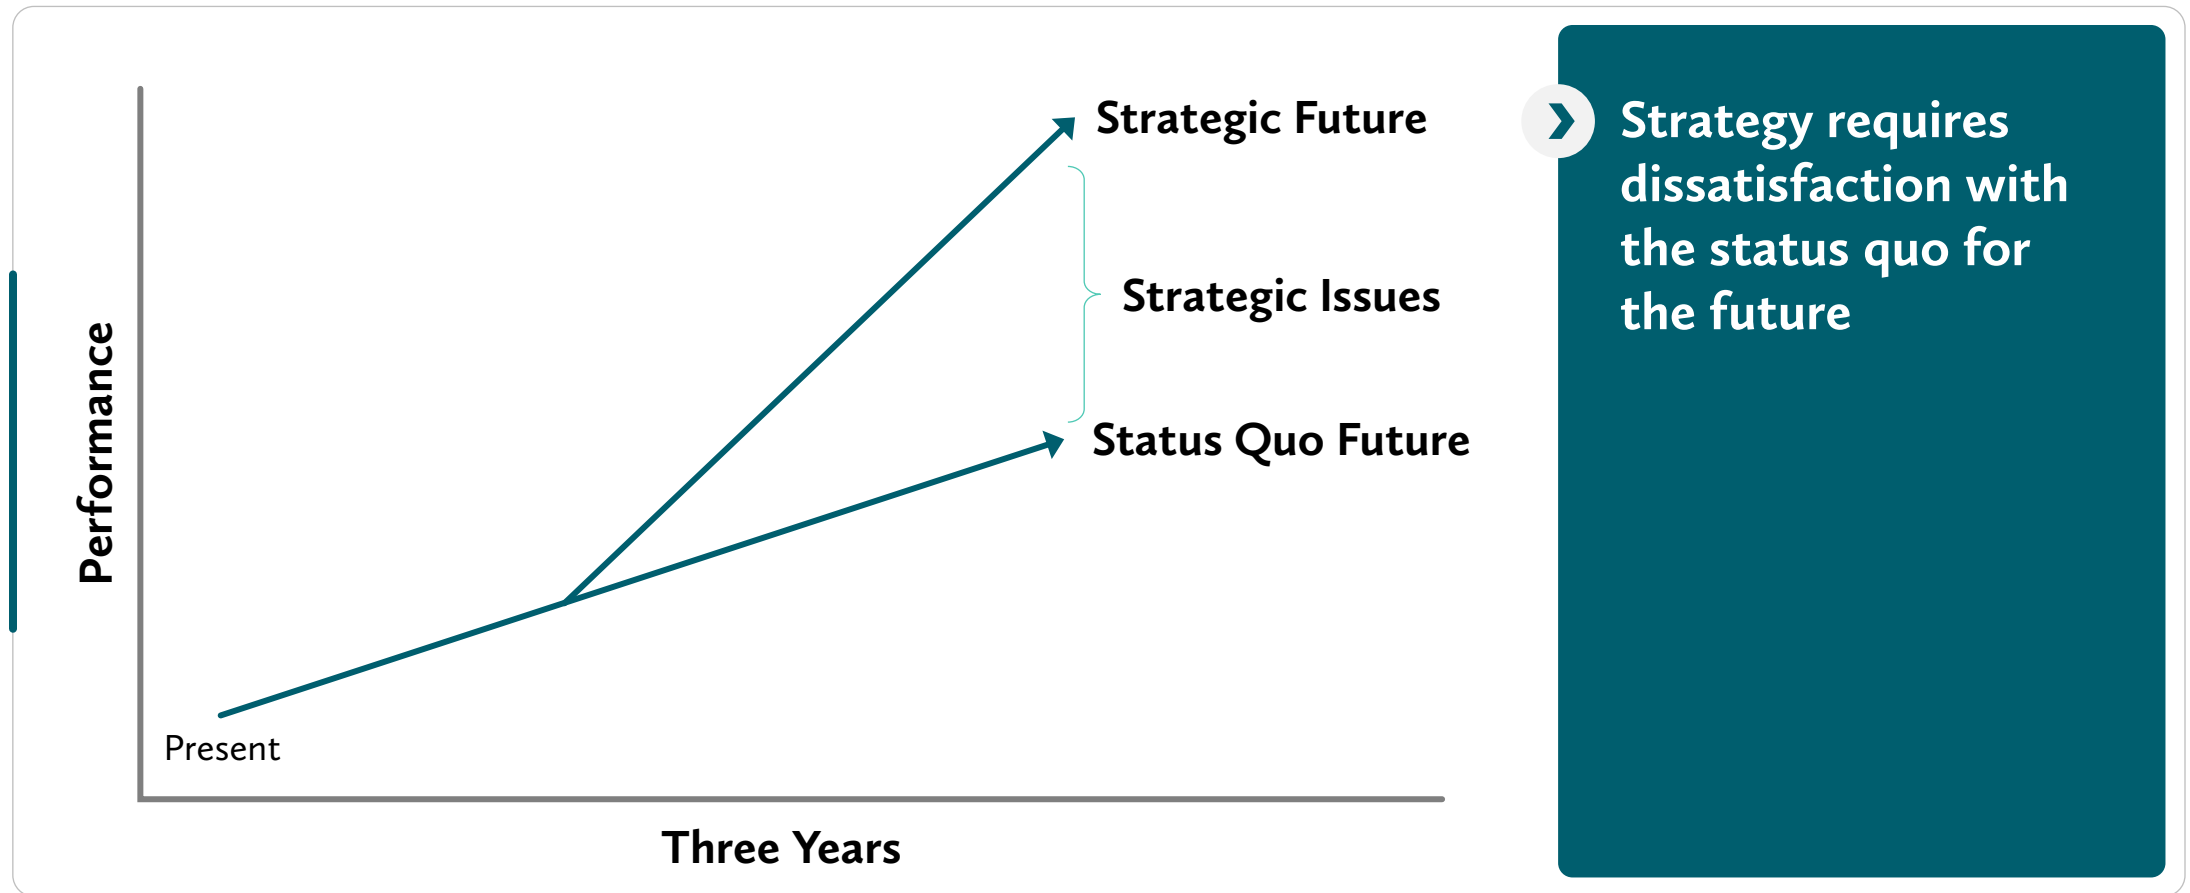

Strategy is not tactics. Strategy is large-scale, long-term and stable. Tactics are fluid and shorter-term.

- › You adjust tactics in pursuit of your strategy.

Strategy Formation

➤ Strategy requires dissatisfaction with the status quo for the future

Context for Strategy

➤ An organization is itself “a thing”

➤ The organization operates within an environment

➤ That environment is dynamic

4 Parts of Strategy Formation

➤ Affirmation of purpose

➤ Narrative describing environment and its changing nature

➤ Statement of organization's position

➤ A real description of the organization at the end of the planning time horizon

Results of Strategy Formation

› Answers the big questions

› Guides resource allocation

› Provides direction that can be implemented organization-wide

› Develops outcomes for which management is responsible

Strategy Formation Exercise

➤ As you see the world today:

- What is most possible?
- What is less possible?
- What is impossible (but needs to happen)?

Strategic thinking will consider how to make the impossible come to be a reality.

Circle of Possibility

Things to Consider: Think about the next 3 years coming up.

Strategic Planning 101:

Planning

Components of the Planning Process

Strategic Planning Assessment

➤ Take assessment individually.

➤ Discuss the three lowest scores.

➤ Identify next steps for improvement/work with coaches.

Next Steps and Work with your Coach

As a team, answer these questions:

1. Do we have a current strategic plan that is relevant, up-to-date, and guiding our work daily?
2. If NO, are we committed to create a plan in the next six months?
3. Do we have a clear idea of the delegation of responsibilities between the board and staff?
4. Can we see how the meeting schedule outlined above can be shaped to serve our process?

As they are currently drafted, what are the Top 5 Action Steps for your board?

About your Board Leadership Coach

- The goal of coaching: To help facilitate (some) of the Top 5 Action Steps for your Board
- What to expect between Sessions 1 and 2:
 - Coaches may be in touch, but the majority of coaching takes place after Session 2 (concluding by December).
- The role of a coach:
 - Coaches are independent contractors hired by the Murdock Trust—not consultants or Murdock Trust employees
 - The focus of the coaches is supporting your board toward accomplishing some of your Top 5 Action Steps
 - If you have questions or feedback about the Murdock Trust’s administration or grants process, please contact a member of the Murdock Trust, not your coach.

Thank you!

See you in Vancouver, WA, on June 10 & 11 for Session 2!
